Preparation and Change

Preparations are underway for the High Holy Days. Our services will once again present an opportunity for reflection, renewal and change within the warm and welcoming confines of our temple and more particularly our sanctuary. We are looking forward to seeing all of you there.

Change affects all of us and our temple is no different.

Our president usually changes every two years. Typically, our Nominating Committee begins its efforts to present a slate of Officers and Trustees after the High Holy Days. The slate is then presented to the Executive Committee, then the Board of Trustees and then the congregation. At the Annual Meeting, which is held in January or February, we vote on the slate and, with the congregation's approval, we install our Officers and Trustees.

We presented a slate of Officers and Trustees last year who were elected at this year's Annual Meeting. They have represented and led us well since they were elected. The slate even included a President-Elect. Unfortunately, due to personal reasons, Don Carter has withdrawn his name as President-Elect.

Upon learning of this change, we prepared to face this new challenge. We asked Jim Eisenberg to promptly convene the Nominating Committee. The Committee met in June and conversations commenced with potential nominees. The results are stated below; they speak for themselves.

I am excited to report that our current Vice Presidents, Elaine Feldmesser and Judy Shuster, have accepted their nominations to become Co-Presidents of our Temple. They will be part of the slate presented at the Annual Meeting in January. As you can see, we are preparing now for a wonderful future.

Please know that we greatly admire and appreciate all that Judy and Elaine have done for our synagogue in the past. We are anticipating the great efforts they will make to lead our Temple in the future. Please show them your support by thanking them for accepting their nominations.

Judy and Elaine and our leadership cannot make our synagogue successful by themselves. It takes a congregation. Your help is needed. Let's start with your participation in the official vote for Officers and Trustees. Please attend the Annual Meeting in January to cast your vote. Notices of the meeting will be sent out this fall.

Judy and Elaine will provide outstanding leadership. Our future as a congregation is bright. In collaboration with Rabbi Olshein, Cantor Kruk, Jennifer Green Baer and our staff and with your help, Temple Israel will continue to shine its light unto the Palm Beaches.

Yasher Koach Judy and Elaine!

Yasher Koach Temple Israel!

TI Sisterhood

Sisterhood meeting will be held at Temple Israel on Wednesday, August 16th at 11:00 a.m. A complimentary lunch will follow the meeting. We will discuss plans for the High Holy Days, including Break-the-Fast and Honey from the Heart orders. Other topics will include our Judaica shop, Pronegs/Ones and Uniongrams.

If anyone has additional topics for discussion, they can contact me at ellengoldenson@gmail.com.

From the Rabbi

Rabbi Cookie Lea Olshein

Preparing Our Hearts (and Heads) for the High Holy Days ...

Fresh start. Clean slate. New beginnings. Any of these phrases sound appealing when considering any of the relationships in your life?

Sometimes, when I ask people if there is a relationship in their life that they would like to see improved, I sense a feeling of embarrassment in the pause before the answer. Sometimes, there is an estranged child or family member, other times it is a long-lost friend. There is a reluctance to address the problems in the relationship head-on and, instead, a distance grows from the discomfort. Understandably so, since it is often difficult to repair a relationship that has laid fallow for far too long.

On Tuesday night, August 22nd, we begin the month of Elul, the month preceding the Jewish New Year, Rosh HaShanah. This month is traditionally thought of as the prequel (or warm up) to the High Holy Days' season (Erev Rosh HaShanah begins on Wednesday, September 20th).

In Aramaic, the word "Elul" means to search, which is appropriate since it is the time when we begin the deep search within our hearts to examine our behavior and search for answers regarding how to repair the emotional scars within.

This Elul, we have several special opportunities to engage more deeply with the process of "Cheshbon HaNefesh," or taking an accounting of our soul. First, we will be using a special new siddur (prayer book) for S'lichot and the month of Elul, called "Mishkan HaLev," which means "Sanctuary of the Heart." Through this book our Erev Shabbat services, beginning August 25th, will help us hear the sounds of the HHDs liturgy more clearly, and help us do the introspective work to make true change within ourselves this year.

Second, we have our annual "HHDs Boot Camp," with two separate offerings. In particular this month, we hope you will attend our first session on Wednesday, August 16th, from 7:00-8:15pm, where we will be using a unique creative writing process to delve deeply into our discomfort about the themes of the season. We would like to see as many people as possible participate in this workshop as we hope that some of these writings will be included within our new experimental/experiential Yom Kippur Afternoon Service called, "Hineini," which means "Here I Am." (More information about this service will be found in your September Koleynu.)

Lastly, we hope you will consider attending (and perhaps invite a friend to attend) not only our 6th Annual "ShaBaBeQue and Open House," but also our "Taste of Judaism" course beginning August 23rd, which is a wonderful refresher before the High Holy Days. This six-hour basic Judaism course would be a great kick-start for anyone in advance of the HHDs season!

As we prepare ourselves to begin anew, may this season of self-examination be guided by intentionality and kindness, both to yourself and others. Please let me know if there is anything I can do to bring more meaning to your Jewish journey.

President's Circle Update

Nancy and Barry Horowitz | Chairs

With the addition of Teresa and Ken Aaron at the Silver level, we now have 66 President's Circle members in 2017. It is exciting that roughly 25% of TI member families are President's Circle members. We are so pleased and grateful for everyone's support.

As a reminder, Judy and Alan Shuster have graciously offered their beautiful home for the boat parade on Saturday evening, December 2nd. More details will follow, but delicious food and wonderful libations will be served. All current 2017 President Circle members will be invited.

There are still plenty of open spaces on the plaque and new members are always welcome. Please contact us or Jennifer at the Temple office for more information.

Annual Journal Exciting News

Eileen Shapiro and Amy Jonas

Temple Israel is thrilled to be the recipient of a limited edition, hand signed and numbered piece of art by Alan Feldmesser. Alan just happens to be the favorite (and only) son of Elaine and Mark Feldmesser, our honorees for the Annual Journal.

Combining his love of nature, marine life, scuba diving and underwater photography with his technical ability to capture the details of his surroundings, Alan has developed a very unique realism within the marine wildlife art world. He is quickly becoming recognized as one of today's leading marine wildlife artists in the medium of oil paint.

Alan has generously donated one of his fine art giclées for us to raffle in hopes that the money raised from the raffle sales will help underwrite the cost of producing the Journal. The piece titled "Florida Reefscape" is valued at $750.00, measures 30" x 40" and is 1.5 inches in depth. Gallery wrapped, it is ready for hanging by the lucky winner or to be given as a gift.

Raffle tickets are very reasonably priced at 1 for $18; 3 for $36; 6 for $54 and 9 for $72. The drawing will take place on Saturday evening, September 16th, during our traditional cheesecake dessert reception after our S'lichot program and services. The winner need not be present that evening. Take advantage of the great pricing discount and increase your odds of winning with multiple tickets. Doing so is an easy way for you to also help Temple Israel continue to be a winner.

To make purchasing raffle tickets convenient for everyone in the congregation, we are mailing out tickets that can be completed and sent back to the office. You'll also be able to buy tickets in person when you are at the Temple. And on Friday nights, Alan's "Florida Reefscape" will be on display for viewing.

We hope that you find this raffle fun and we appreciate your support of the Journal. We really mean it when we say that "we couldn't do this without you". The Journal's success is because of you. Thank you for making it happen.

If you know someone who is Jewish and looking for a temple for the High Holy Days or to worship with all year, have them call the office.

AEDs at TI

Temple Israel has two AED (Automated External Defibrillators) thanks in part to the generosity of some TI Family members.

One is located in the List Lobby by the men's restroom and one is in the sanctuary on the southwest wall.
