High Holy Days 2018

We could not begin this article without giving “Thanks” to everyone who worked tirelessly to make this New Year so wonderful at Temple Israel; to Rabbi Olshein for her dedication to making this High Holy Day season the best for us all; Cantor Kruk for his beautiful voice and songs that made our worship so special; to David Block for his lovely music that ties it all together; to our dedicated staff: Clover, Tamekia and Earnton, headed by our Temple Administrator, Jennifer Green Baer, for your efforts without which things would never get done; to the Choir for their voices that lift our worship services even higher; and to each and every Volunteer who assisted in the mailings, sold ads and proofed our Annual Journal, served as an usher, attended one more meeting, organized the Honors or folded one more piece of paper or cooked one more kugel ... thank you, thank you, thank you. It is truly this community that makes Temple Israel the best of the best!

So where are your presidents in all of this? We always have three duties:

The Duty of Care – We have to ensure the prudent use of all assets, including the facility, the people and good will.

The Duty of Loyalty – We have to ensure that Temple Israel’s activities and transactions are, first and foremost advancing its mission.

The Duty of Obedience – We have to ensure that Temple Israel obeys applicable laws and regulations and follows its own by-laws.

These presidential obligations never change even when our board changes and the gavel is passed to the next president. What does change is the “everything else”, the details of Temple life. They change sometimes daily, sometimes minute-to-minute. It’s tending to the “everything else” in light of our duties that keep us so busy. We don’t want to get waylaid on our way to our goal. We want to keep moving forward without any detours. Since no GPS exists to guide us, we are searching for direction from you in the form of small “Listening Sessions” at congregants’ homes.

Congregants who have chosen to be facilitators have been charged with bringing together small, diverse groups of congregants for a conversation. The diversity may be determined by geography, or by age, or by interests or by whatever criteria the facilitator chooses. The groups will be comprised of 5 – 8 family units. The conversations are meant to last one hour or so. During each session “big picture” questions will be asked, as the basis for the conversation:

What brought you to Temple Israel and what makes you come back?

What could be added to your Temple Israel experience that would make our Temple more indispensable to you?

What needs do you think you will have in 5-10 years that could be met by Temple Israel?

By the time this article is published, we hope to have had 4-5 separate sessions at different locations. Our goal is to have about 15-20 sessions in total. We will record the thoughts expressed at each session, anonymously. It is impossible to reach everyone at Temple through these small groups, so let us know if you want to participate in a session and we will arrange it. At the conclusion of all the sessions, we will have one final session for everyone to attend. It will be at Temple on a future date and time. Finally, any meaningful information gathered during these sessions will be shared with you.

We send our wishes for a Happy, Healthy Sweet New Year to everyone.

B’ Shalom.

From the Rabbi

Rabbi Cookie Lea Olshein

Todah Rabbah: Giving Thanks to So Many Who Make Things Happen

At every worship service, we say a prayer called Hoda'ah, where we say thank you to God for all the blessings in our lives. As we are still in the midst of the High Holy Days' season (they truly do not end until after Yizkor at the end of Sukkot) when I am writing this, we have so many behind-the-scenes people to thank for supporting our community's High Holy Days' experiences.

Beginning back on September 1st, our season of reflection began with our S'lichot observance. I want to thank Carol Safran and Peter Eckstein for chairing the S'lichot evening and the Shusters for again sponsoring our cheesecake reception following our worship.

Regarding Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur, I am thankful for our fabulous Torah and Haftarah readers who work so hard every year to perfect their sharing of our sacred scriptures. Thank you to Mark Simkowitz, Adrienne Weissman for organizing our ushers and greeters. I am grateful for Maggie Kaufman and Karen Davis for helping to organize the overwhelming task of HHDs Honors.

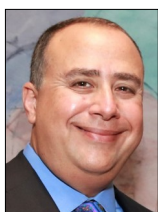

Regarding all the crazy behind-the-scenes tasks that need to be addressed for a successful HHDs season, special thanks to Terry Resk who worked so hard organizing our HHDs Food Drive (don't forget, you can always donate food year-round to help those in need) and to Ron Levinson and Carol Anne Albee for all of their unsung work on all of our technical needs. We must also thank the incomparable Amy Jonas whose tireless energy simply gets things done.

Regarding our Shabbat Shuvah at the Beach, I need to thank our new members Carlos and Michell Escobar who helped with our Pronegs and Onegs. And, of course, I thank our wonderful Office staff and Earnton Mosley for everything they do. As in the past, we thank the Choir for all their hard work enhancing our worship with their beautiful music. Further, I also want to thank Carol Garrett for volunteering to provide music for our Family and Healing Services, as well as our new Yom Kippur afternoon service, called Hineini, where she played and sang so beautifully with Cantor Kruk.

As I near the end of these public thank you's, I do not have enough words of praise for Cantor Michael Kruk, the best pulpit partner I have ever had. Our community is blessed with his superb musicianship through his voice, violin and guitar. I cannot stress how much his kindness and continuing support helps to create our overall worship experience.

The danger of thanking people by name is the inevitable certainty of leaving someone out and hurting their feelings, so my apologies in advance. I am grateful for everyone who feels ownership of our synagogue and who gives of their time, talents and treasures to create this wonderful spiritual community which is open to all.

Thank you all for saying "yes" when asked and may you be blessed in all your efforts to help our community become even stronger in the future. As always, please let me know how I can help you on your Jewish journey.

President's Circle

Nancy and Barry Horowitz

We are planning the President's Circle Shabbat service on Friday, November 9th. Members will have the opportunity to participate in the service as well as be invited on to the Bimah for a blessing.

We will also be sponsoring a lovely Proneg and Oneg that evening. Those congregants who wish to join prior to November 9th will be able to participate in the President's Circle Shabbat and will also receive credit for 2019 membership.

For more information, please contact us or Jennifer in the Temple Office.

Spotlight: Marty List, Vice President

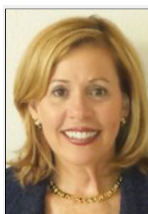

Although many of you know that my wife, Karen, is a life-long member of Temple Israel (and the daughter of past president, Mort Gilbert), you may be surprised to learn that my parents, Cynn timer and Bob List, first joined Temple Israel in 1958 as newlyweds. It was only when it came time for me to attend religious school that they joined a local conservative congregation where I became a Bar Mitzvah and was Confirmed. But when Karen and I decided to get married, there was no doubt that we would get married at Temple Israel. Once I met Rabbi Howard Shapiro, the new rabbi at the time, I knew immediately that this is where I felt comfortable expressing my Jewish spiritual identity. I was attracted by Rabbi Shapiro's vision to restore tradition to liberal Reform Judaism. But it is our many friends who provide the glue that keeps us involved and committed to Temple Israel.

Shortly after Karen and I got married, the outstanding nominating committee chairman at the time (my father-in-law) invited me to join the Board of Directors under the leadership of Barbara Ackerman and of course I accepted. I have served on the Board and the Executive Committee on and off, but mostly on, ever since. Over the last 35 years, I have had the pleasure of working with and learning from some of the most committed Temple and community leaders. It is amazing to reflect on how Temple Israel members have been the guiding forces behind building the community institutions we take for granted today – the Jewish Federation, MorseLife, Meyer Academy, Alpert Jewish Family & Children's Service, Commission for Jewish Education, Kravis Center and more.

For 95 years, Temple Israel has been a beacon for Reform Jews in Central and Northern Palm Beach County who want to express their Jewish spirituality in personally profound ways and share something more of themselves by making a difference in our larger Jewish community. On a personal level, the Temple Israel family has been there for me and my family to celebrate happy times, to support us during sad times and to join together to make our world a better place. It is our responsibility to make sure that Temple Israel is there for future generations of Reform Jews in our area who want to enjoy that same heartwarming experience.

Membership Committee News

Carol Safran and Amy Jonas, Membership Co-Chairs

Think back to your first experiences as a Temple Israel member. Are your memories taking you back decades? Years? Months? Days? Did you have young children (as we did) who brought you into our Religious School community? Were you an empty-nester finding yourself with more time to pursue your own interests? Were you new to the community and looking for a spiritual home? A place to socialize?

It probably comes as no surprise that many of our members join the congregation just before or right after the High Holy Days. This year is no different. And while the Days of Awe are a truly special time at Temple Israel, with members and guests all wishing one another Shana Tova!, unless you have a great talent for names and faces and are very tied into our Temple community, it's hard to know who among us is a new member of the congregation. We clearly identify guests with a name badge that says visitor, but our newest members are not so easily identified.

That's about to change. So when you are at Temple and see someone with a lilac-colored name badge, you'll know that person has joined our congregation within the past year. That lilac-colored badge will be your cue to strike up a conversation, maybe play a little Jewish geography and introduce our new member(s) around. And if you have a lilac-colored name badge, wear it proudly. We're so happy you've chosen to join the Temple Israel Family!

The Mussar Moment

Barry Horowitz, M.D.

Everything that is alive grows. The Mussar strand of Jewish tradition speaks to how we grow and what tools we can use to grow towards the light. Mussar recognizes that growth is linear and that growing spiritually is hard. For those in our community who have studied Mussar in the past, and for those who would like to begin to explore this 1000-year-old Jewish spiritual perspective, Rabbi Shapiro and I invite you to participate this year's Mussar Class, Mussar and Your Voice for Growth, to keep your life's journey toward holiness and wholeness feeling new, fresh and compelling.

Using modern literature (poetry and prose) connected to relevant middot (soul traits), we will share the stories of our challenges and opportunities as we feel the hand of the ancient Mussar masters touching us, guiding us and giving us reason to begin again. We will utilize a variety of Mussar techniques including meditation, kabbalat, visualizations and contemplations. These insights into our behavior from our Mussar teachers assist us in addressing how we live our daily lives ethically, morally and in the spirit of the sacred. Spiritual and educational resources for this course will be provided in part each month from the Mussar Institute.

The class will take place at TI on the following evenings from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m.: November 14, December 4, 2018 and January 15, February 12, March 13, April 10, 2019.

DR. SARAH BENOR, HUC PROFESSOR

Chutzpah to Chidush: A Century of Yiddish-Influenced English in America

Dr. Benor shows how Yiddish has influenced the English of Jews (and non-Jews) in the U.S. It has an impact both on the “Yinglish” of the Ashkenazic immigrant generation and on the “Yeshivish” English spoken by Orthodox Jews today.

FRIDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 1, 2019

MICHAEL TWITTY, CHEF AND BLOGGER

Kosher/Soul: Black-Jewish Identity Cooking

Being African American and Jewish is a complicated combination. Thousands of Jews of color have heritage, faith and family in both Diasporas - African and Jewish. This creates a need for material that interweave both identities. For Michael, food is one of those ways. He will explore and give us a taste of what he calls, “Kosher Soul.”

FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 8, 2019

SHIRA KLINE, NY-BASED PERFORMER & EDUCATOR

A Dynamic, Interactive Evening of Joy and Spirit, Story and Song

Raised in the world of music and the tradition of Torah, Shira has worked for over a decade with a diverse array of Jewish communities to enliven rituals, holiday celebrations and love for Jewish life and prayer. Blending words, story and music, she creates a rich experience for everyone.
