

Welcome To Our High Holy Days

2023 / 5784

We are so excited to have the visions and leadership of our new rabbis this year—Rabbi Ryan Daniels and Rabbi Carlie Weisbrod Daniels. We hope you can join us throughout the year, including at our High Holy Days, to experience the warmth of our Temple Israel Family.

This year, perhaps more than ever before, our offerings are designed to meet the needs of our diverse community. As always, we will strive to enable everyone with us to access the awe and transcendence of the time, to offer inclusive and inspiring services that speak to the mind, heart and soul, and to model the best of what a synagogue community can be.

We look forward to sharing these sacred days with you and wish you and your loved ones a sweet, healthy and happy year as we bid 5783 farewell and step forward into 5784 with hope for healing, blessing and the promise of a new tomorrow for us all.

Please read this guide carefully. Many of our programs are free and open to all. However, tickets are required for most of our High Holy Days services. Instructions on obtaining tickets are within this booklet. You can also contact us at tioffice@temple-israel.com or (561) 833-8421. We're here for you!

July 2023

Dear Friends,

We're planning for a most uplifting and meaningful experience this year for the High Holy Days, led by our new co-senior rabbis, Rabbi Carlie Weisbrod Daniels and Rabbi Ryan Daniels, and our Cantorial Soloist Suzanne Guinane.

The following pages include a schedule and descriptions of Temple Israel's programs and services leading up to and following these Days of Awe. Whether you are a long-time congregant or new to our community, we welcome you.

Tickets will be required for our Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur services, which are free for our Temple Israel members in good standing and at a reasonable cost for non-members. Members and non-members must register by August 31st to obtain tickets – either online at www.temple-israel.com/hhd2023 or by using the enclosed Ticket Order Form. You will need to show your tickets at our door to proceed to services.

Services will be held in our Morris & Rose Kraft Sanctuary. We anticipate a full house as we are all excited to partake in our new rabbis' first High Holy Days services with us. Should we exceed our sanctuary's capacity, our David & Pauline Carter Ballroom will be available with livestreamed services. For those unable to attend in person, services will be livestreamed to our Facebook page (Temple Israel, West Palm Beach).

One of Temple Israel's special traditions is to recognize our members and honor them with the opportunity to participate in our High Holy Days' services. This year members will be invited to receive an honor at services by our rabbis, cantorial soloist or a member of the Honors Committee. Please refer to page 9.
